CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purpose: to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of Individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

These Constitution and By-Laws supersede any and all previously known or unknown, written and/or amended Constitution and By-Laws, reported or not reported, for governing the actions of Charles F. Thomas IV, Post 117, Inc.

The Constitution and By-Laws were approved by a regular membership meeting following due notice of such meeting on 19 October 2016.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I - NAME

SECTION 1. The name of this organization shall be the Charles F. Thomas IV Post 117, Inc; The American Legion of Florida.

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES

SECTION 1. The objectives and purpose of this Post shall be to promote the principles and policies set forth in the foregoing Preamble, and the National and Departmental Constitutions of the American Legion.

ARTICLE III - NATURE

SECTION 1. The Post is a civilian organization and membership therein does not affect or increase liability for military or police service.

SECTION 2. This organization shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

SECTION 3. Rank does not exist in the American Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military title in any meeting of the Post.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Eligibility to membership in this Post shall be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

SECTION 2. Application for membership shall be made in writing under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Post Executive Committee.

SECTION 3. All applications for membership shall be acted upon at the next regular Post meeting following the making of such application, and shall at said meeting be accepted, rejected or referred for further investigation and consideration. If the majority of members present cast their vote against the acceptance of said application, then such application shall be recorded as rejected.

SECTION 4. Any member of this Post may be suspended or expelled for cause by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Committee of the Post after charges are preferred under oath and in writing, and after a fair trial as prescribed by National Headquarters.

SECTION 5. Any Officer or member who has been expelled or suspended from this Post By the Executive Committee, for neglect of duty, dishonesty, disloyalty to the National Government and The American Legion and conduct unbecoming an officer or member of The American Legion as provided for in Section 18, Article X Department Constitution, may be reinstated to membership by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership present in Post meeting, and payment of current dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs,

SECTION 6. Any officer or member who has been suspended or expelled shall have the right to appeal to the Department Convention. The decision of the Department shall be final. The provisions of Sections 4, 5, and 6 do not apply to disciplinary procedures carried out in compliance with any state or local law, not affecting the right of the member to attend Legion meetings.

SECTION 7. No person who has been expelled by another Post shall be admitted to membership in this Post without the consent of the expelling Post; except when consent has been denied by the expelling post and an appeal to the Department Executive Committee has granted permission for membership.

SECTION 8. There shall be no class of membership except active membership whose annual dues are paid.

ARTICLE V - OFFICERS
